Section 5: Statement of intended program and research focus on 10th Mountain Division History: Please document your proposed educational program, the degree you seek, major area of study, and proposed research project (thesis, capstone project, dissertation) focused upon 10th Mountain Division history (WWII or impact post war, or current 10th Mountain Division).

Section 6: Statement of impact of your proposed research: Provide a statement not to exceed 1000 words concerning the relationship of the Tenth Mountain Division History Scholarship to the applicant's field of study and the value to be derived both by the individual and the general public. (As this scholarship is a project of the 10th Mountain Division Foundation's Education Committee, there is an expectation that the completed research project will be made accessible to the public, at the very least through submission to the 10th Mountain Division Archives of the Denver Public Library. Disbursement of the final installment of the scholarship funds is contingent upon completing this requirement.)

Section 7      Review and Submittal

Please review all materials submitted for clarity and relevance. Complete the checklist and enclose it with your other materials in the order indicated on the checklist.
